Hello, my name is Mrs. Edna McMillan!

Ninety-three years ago, I was elected to be the President of the Oklahoma Woman's Missionary Union (or you can call it WMU). I spent my time encouraging Oklahoma Baptist churches to tell their neighbors and community about Jesus. In 1939, the Oklahoma State Missions Offering was named after me. Each year, families give their money to help hurting people know about Jesus.

I have two friends I want you to meet. They love telling others about Jesus!

Miss Annie Armstrong started missions in North America. She's awesome! During Easter, churches give money so that people on our continent (places like the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico) will hear that Jesus loves them.

Standing next to Annie is my friend, Miss Lottie Moon. She is 4' 3". How tall are you? Miss Lottie spent her life loving the people of China. She told many people about Jesus. During the Christmas season, churches collect an offering so that missionaries can tell people about Jesus all around the world.

Will you join me in telling others about Jesus? Jesus loves them and wants to be their friend forever!

I'm Annie!

I'm Lottie!

Conversation Starter: What is an offering?

Additional Activity: Miss Lottie made cookies to tell her neighbors about Jesus. Make cookies for your neighbors and tell them, "Jesus loves you!"
